Clario Hires New VP of Sales

SEATTLE, WA – August 7, 2017 – Clario, the leading radiology worklist software company, is pleased to announce that Omar Gallardo has joined their team as VP of Sales. With seventeen years successfully selling a variety of radiology products, Omar brings the knowledge, experience and connections needed for Clario to grow.

Chris Wood, CEO of Clario, stated, “I had worked with Omar in the past and knew that he had extensive knowledge and passion selling technology in radiology. When the opportunity presented itself to have him join Clario, I did not want to pass it up. I am excited to have Omar driving sales for us as we continue to grow.”
